MORE FRICTION IN DUBLIN.

Dublin, March 19." Late last night troops surrounded a public-house in Parcell Square, Dublin, where it was reported that 30 to 40 wanted men had assembled, including Tobin and Dalton.

This grave situation is believed to be a sequel to the recent Army trouble, and is indicated by the fact that several Ministers visited the scene of operations. It was officially announced this morning, that the ten officers who left their posts, were arrested on the roof of the public-house. It is believed that there are more men on the roof, and the search is proceeding -Reuter.

The siege, wherein a large force of military, armoured cars, and machine-guns participated, was raised at 10,30 this morning. No further arrests have been made. Tobin escaped and Dalton was not present. The arrested people include Colonel O'Mally, three other colonels, and four commandants,-Reuter.

Reuter. interests made a political instrument. The Netherlands already took an important part in commerce with Russia and the question of de jure recognition depended on the goodwill of Russia and respect for Dutch political institutions. He hoped the day was not far distant when Russia would be re-admitted into the family of European Nations, but that depended; primarily on Russia's good faith. The Government considered the tenour of Viscount Cecil's mutual guarantee pactias, opposed to the most fundamental feelings of the Dutch people. Small states would become the military reserves of the powerful ones, which would stultify the League so far as the small states were concerned. The leaders of the Catholic.

THE CUP FINAL.

Preventing Last Year's Scenes.

The British Empire Exhibition have made their plans to avoid any such overcrowding of the Imperial Sports Stadium as occurred last year when the Final Tie for the Association Cup was decided, says the Athletic News.

The Football Association do not seem to approve of the new arrangements, and again disclaim all responsibility for order and discipline on an occasion when the public naturally look more to the parent body than to a group of officials with limited experience, belonging to Exhibition, for their safety and accommodation. Since the Final Tie of 1923, a severe lesson no doubt, the Miss D. Innes, Miss A. L. Ley- Carlisle, Mr. J. Steedman, Mr. R. spectators' part of the Stadium bourn. Mid. R. G. Lewis.
